Traveling with Washington State Ferries

Washington State Ferries serves nine different routes, from Point Defiance near Tacoma in the southern Puget Sound, north to the San Juan Islands, and Sidney, British Columbia in Canada. Washington State Ferries is your marine highway. All of our ferries carry both vehicles and passengers with travel times varying by route from 15 minutes to over three hours. Generally, vehicles are boarded on a first-come, first-served basis but the can vary on multi-destination routes.

Vehicles should be at the terminal and in line at least 30 minutes prior to departure to ensure getting through the toll booths. During peak travel times, travelers should arrive at least 60 minutes in advance of departure. Some routes cease loading two minutes before departure.

WSF carries all vehicles and trucks under 80,000 lbs gross vehicle weight.

WSF accepts cash, credit cards and traveler's checks (U.S. only) for payment of travel.

Reservations

A reservation is a way for a vehicle to save a spot on a few ferry routes. These routes include:

- Port Townsend/Coupeville
- Anacortes/San Juan Islands (Friday Harbor, Orcas Island, Shaw Island, Lopez Island).

A vehicle reservation is not a ticket. It has no cost unless you no show - If you do not show up, you will be charged a fee. If you make multiple reservations and only use one, you will be charged a no-show fee for the unused reservation(s).

Purchase your tickets online or when you arrive at the terminal or tollbooth to pay your fare.

Vehicle reservations are not required, but are strongly recommended - Limited stand-by space is available on all sailings.

Vehicle reservations are one way - Be sure to make reservations for both your outbound and return trips. Please note that there are no reservations eastbound departing Shaw or Lopez Island to Anacortes. All vehicles are loaded first-come first-served from these terminals.

Reservations are for vehicles only - Walk-on passengers and those bringing bicycles can buy a ticket online or pay when you arrive.

About the San Juan Islands

At Anacortes, traffic ranges from moderate in the off-season to heavy in the late spring, summer and early fall. If is best to have a vehicle in line at least an hour in advance, with a two-hour advance arrival for the summer and busy weekends. Return from the islands to Anacortes is busiest on Sunday afternoons and early evenings. During the summer, arrive at least 90 minutes in advance for your return trip home. Washington State Ferries serves four islands: Lopez Island, Shaw Island, Orcas Island and San Juan Island (Friday Harbor). Please be aware that not all sailings stop at each island.
